

THE J. H. Walker Company

CHICAGO, ILL.

Whose immense retail store was a wonder to every visitor to Chicago during the World's Fair, also ran a wholesale house with a stock of more than $1,000,000, which, through the failure of the Company, was placed in the hands of the sheriff and has just been sold by The Western Salvage and Auction Company. One of our firm, accompanied by our New York buyer, attended the sale this past week, and from the few cases received we know we will be in a position to hold the most stupendous sale yet to our credit. These goods will be placed on sale day by day just as they are received, so it will be necessary for you to watch our announcements closely and come in the store as often as possible. The goods advertised below have already arrived, and these, together with those things remaining unsold from the
